The plaintiff, Linda D. White, brings this action pursuant to § 205(g) of the Social Security Act, as amended, to obtain judicial review of the final decision by the Commissioner of Social Security denying plaintiff's claim for disability insurance benefits (DIB).

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and Recommendation wherein he suggests that the Commissioner's decision to deny benefits should be reversed and remanded. The Magistrate Judge provides a detailed discussion of the undisputed and relevant medical evidence and the standards of law which this court incorporates without a recitation.

The parties were advised of their right to submit objections to the Report and Recommendation which was filed on May 12, 2011. The Commissioner has responded indicating that it will not be filing objections to the Report. Thus, it appears the matter is ripe for consideration by this court.

The court has carefully reviewed the record and finds the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge to be proper. It is therefore ordered that the Report is incorporated herein and that the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying benefits in this case is reversed and remanded for further proceedings as set forth in the Report and Recommendation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
